Good news for homemakers

Cheese has often been thought of as a hard times protein option. It is not necessarily a low-cost substitute for expensive meats and fish on today's market.

Cheese provides high quality protein, comparable to that in meat, but consumers should consider the cost of that protein when planning meals around cheese or cheese products.

Protein density varies with the moisture content of cheese. Cheeses that are soft contain less protein per pound than hard, dry cheese. For instance, although parmesean costs more than twice as much per pound as cottage cheese, their protein cost are almost equal because 1-½ ounces of the hard grated cheese has the same amount of protein as ⅔ cup of cottage cheese.

The relationship of moisture to protein cost can also be seen when considering pasteurized processed cheese, cheese food and cheese spread. These are products that confuse the consumer and need good labeling on them.

Of the three, cheese spread is the cheapest per pound, but it also has the highest moisture content. At a recent price check, pasteurized processed cheese with the least moisture had the lowest protein cost of the three products:

A consumer who plans to use cheese as the sole protein source in a meal should also be aware of the serving size necessary to provide each person with about 20 grams of protein which is ⅓ of the recommended daily allowance for an adult male. To meet this standard, a casserole for four persons would have to include 8-½ ounces of cheddar cheese, almost 18 ounces of processed cheese spread or more than 2 pounds of cream cheese.

Some convenience foods with cheese ingredients are questionable protein bargains when the serving size is taken into consideration. For instance, a dry macaroni and cheese dinner mix is a relatively cheap source of protein, but an individual must eat ⅔ of the box to get 20 grams. While such a large serving may be inexpensive, it is impractical and certainly contains too many calories. Products like packaged macaroni and cheese and processed cheese spreads are most appropriately used as supplementary protein sources in the diet.

This type of cost comparison shows that cheese is not always the best protein buy. Dried beans and chicken are less expensive sources of protein, while tuna and hamburger at $1.99 a pound have about the same protein cost as hard cheeses such as swiss and cheddar.

Cheese provides other nutrients such as a notable amount of calcium and riboflavin. In addition to being an excellent source of protein, a consumer who is looking primarily for low-cost protein sources should base purchase decisions on protein costs and serving size consideration.

Hopefully this information will help you as you try to cut food costs during an inflated economy. Read the ads in the newspaper. Learn to shop for specials. Freeze beef, poultry and pork when they are on special. Be a coupon clipper. These things will help save a few cents on the shopping dollar.

Have a good week, homemakers!

RECIPE OF THE WEEK
Double Cornbread Deluxe

2 eggs
½ cup cooking oil
1 small carton (1 cup) sour cream
1 - 1 lb. 1 oz. can creamstyle corn
1 cup self-rising corn meal

Beat eggs. Add oil and sour cream. Add corn meal and creamstyle corn. Bake for 30 to 40 minutes in a 425 degree oven. This recipe can be easily halved or if you wish to save the leftovers, it is delicious reheated the next day. If you do not have self-rising corn meal, add 1 teaspoon baking powder and ½ teaspoon salt to your all purpose corn meal. This is a delicious recipe that resembles spoon bread.

Note: Save any leftovers and reheat. Many of you have requested that this be published again in this column.

Hollywood

For the Lord seeth not as man seeth; for man looketh on the outward appearance but God looketh on the heart. 1 Samuel 16:7.

Rev. Dan Menser brought an inspiring message to the people at Hollywood Church Sunday morning.

We were happy to hear that Mrs. Murna S. Franklin was feeling some better Sunday when her husband, Mr. David Franklin, and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Carter visited her. She is a patient in the Westbrook Hospital, 1500 West Ave., Richmond, Va. 23227. Her relatives and many friends wish for her a very speedy recovery.

We are so glad Mr. David Smith came home last week from the hospital. Each one wishes him a very speedy recovery. Mr. and Mrs. Walter Shupe visited Mr. and Mrs. Smith Sunday. Mr. David Franklin was a supper guest in this home Sunday night.

Mrs. Phyliss Davis of Scottsville visited her son, Mr. Andy Davis and family Sunday.

Visiting Mr. and Mrs. Monroe Webb Sunday and during the week were Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Franklin, Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Goin and family, Mr. and Mrs. Allen Webb, Mr. Jim Webb and son, Timmy, Mr. Scott Sheets, Mr. H. W. Jenkins, and Mrs. Walker and Richard Webb.

We were very sorry to hear of the illness of Mr. Miles Elder of Halifax. He is a brother of Rev. W. H. Elder. Get well wishes and our prayers are with him and his love ones.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hancock of Richmond spent the weekend with Mrs. Hancock's mother, Mrs. J. L. Torrence.

We are so glad Mr. Robert Coleman is feeling some better. Visiting him and Mrs. Coleman Sunday were Mrs. J. L. Torrence, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hancock, Mr. Joe Goin, Mr. Herbert Abbitt and Mr. Calvin Smith.

Guest Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Watson, Sr. were Mrs. Harry Johnson and Mr. Burton Johnson of Vernon Hill.

Mrs. Claude Hamlett of Hurt visited her mother, Mrs. Virgie Beasley, Thursday.

Mr. H. W. Jenkins was a visitor Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. Twyman Baldwin.

Mr. Henry Mann, Mr. Ryland Mann, Mr. L. L. Webb and Mr. Thomas Woodall spent Saturday doing some work at the Baptist parsonage. They were luncheon guest of Rev. and Mrs. Dan Menser and family.

Sunday afternoon guest of Mrs. Billy Inge were Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Wingfield and Miss Julia Wingfield.

Little Stuart Deaner is sick with a virus. We hope he may be real well soon.

Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Webb and Miss Joyce Webb were visitors Sunday afternoon of Mr. and Mrs. Martin Webb and Mr. and Mrs. George Purdue.

Calling in the home of Mrs. Mary Bagby Sunday and last week were Mr. and Mrs. Richard Webb, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Almond and Jody Kendricks, Mrs. Raymond Franklin, Mrs. Billy Inge, the W. H. Wingfields and the Thomas Woodalls.

All of us carry marks of living, dents, scratches from sorrow, mistakes, dissapointments, and often our own foolishness. How comforting it is to know that God doesn't mind those scars. He expects and forgives them.

Annual Meeting at Promise Land Church set for Saturday

The annual church meeting of the Promise Land Baptist Church will be held this Saturday at 12 o'clock. All officers and members are asked to be present. All the auxiliaries are asked to make their financial report for last year. The program of work for the New Year will be worked out.

A very appreciative crowd of members and friends attended the regular preaching service at the Gallilee Baptist last Sunday morning. The pastor delivered a special message for the New Year. The Senior and Junior Choirs rendered beautiful music. Holy Communion was conducted at the close of the morning worship.

The annual church meeting of Gallilee was held last Saturday evening at 7 p.m. The program of work for last year was reviewed and goals were set for the New Year. The church voted, to make some improvements on the church. The treasurer reported the progress in contributions and donations over last year. The church planned to sponsor two financial drives for the improvements during the year.

The Mt. Shiloh Church Junior Choir is making plans for its anniversary on the third Sunday in February at 3 p.m. Please keep this in mind.

We are happy to learn that the sick of the community are improving.

The general public is invited to attend regular preaching service at the Promise Land Baptist Church this Sunday at 11 a.m.

Mrs. Modessa Jordan is visiting her mother and relatives here. She has been sick. We trust she will improve.

Regular preaching service will be held at the Mt. Shiloh Baptist Church this Sunday evening at 7 p.m. Special music will be rendered by the Junior Choir. Members and friends are invited to attend.

Pamplin

Mr. and Mrs. Marion Duling of Richmond spent last week end at their home here.

Mr. and Mrs. Bascomb Johnson of Castlewood, Va., spent the week end with their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Richard F. Williams, Jr.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Boggs, Mrs. Percy Lucado, and Mrs. C. V. Wingfield attended "Proclaim The Word" inter-district rally on Thursday at Fort Hill United Methodist Church, Lynchburg, Va. The districts consisted of, Farmville, Lynchburg, Danville and a portion of Charlottesville.

Mr. and Mrs. Tommy Harris spent the week end with her sister and borther-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. David Savitz of Roanoke.

Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Dickman of Rogers, Ark., arrived Sunday, for a visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Inge.

Mrs. Grace Covington is a patient at Virginia Baptist Hospital.

Mr. Harry Davis and daughter, Jennifer, of Richmond spent Saturday night with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Davis.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Jennell of Tampa, Fla., were recent guest of Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Ligon.

Gaines to host tour group

Mildred Gaines will be hosting a group from this area to Italy, Switzerland, Liechtenstein, Austria and Germany for 17 days beginning June 17.

The highlight of this tour will be the once-in-a-decade performance of the World-famous "PASSION PLAY", at Oberammergau, Germany. This play is a living monument to Christ's passion toward mankind 2000 years ago and today; and of a people true to their vow. It is a thrilling potrayal in dramatic representation of the Life of Christ from his Triumphal Entry to the Ascension.

The group from this area will travel with Reverend and Mrs. James Duncan, who are excellent tour hosts, and have traveled all over Europe and are very familiar with the areas which will be visited.

Anyone who has failed to send reservations in should do so at once, as there are only four reservations left.

Concord young homemakers held meeting

The Concord Young Homemaker Club held its January meeting at the home of Mrs. Evelyn Carroll.

Plans were made to attend the State Young Homemakers and Young Farmers Convention in Norfolk in January.

The annual convention will be held at the Omni International Hotel, Norfolk, January 25-26. Over 500 members are expected to attend. The 1980 officers for the two organizations will be elected and installed during the convention.

Concord chapter won the Southside "Safety" award in November at the area convention.

The chapter will compete at the State Convention in Norfolk.

Officers installed for the Concord chapter were Mrs. Helen Franklin, president; Mrs. Evely Perrow, vice-president; Mrs. Sue Anderson, secretary; Mrs. Marie Perrow, treasurer; Mrs. Colena Roberts, historian; and Mrs. Barbara Jordan, reporter.
